Our Service

Provides services for families from all different cultural backgrounds and all family types who have dependent children under 12 years of age.

We address issues around family violence, child development/behaviour strategies, and parent / child relationships, etc

Our belief is that families have their own strengths and our aim is to assist families in developing that strength to support the parent/child relationship. We aim to work with families through the different and sometimes difficult stages, as well as offer families strategies and various programs.

Families living in the following areas :

Wentworthville, South Wentworthville, Pendle Hill, Greystanes, Merrylands West, Mays Hill, Westmead, Toongabbie, Girraween, Woodpark and parts of Merrylands, Guildford, Parramatta, North Parramatta and Northmead.

Referrals

Referrals can be made by families, School Counsellors, Early Childhood Nurses, local Doctors, hospitals and Government Departments i.e. Department of Community Services, Dept. of Housing, Dept. of Health, Centrelink. Call the Centre and talk to a staff member, your basic details and the general reasons for the referral will be taken.

What happens after a referral is made?

After a referral has been taken a Child and Family Worker will ring you and organise a time to meet with you. They will explain more about our service and talk more with you about your situation and what service is appropriate for you.
